Double-sided charging solar panel

Overview

Unlike standard panels that capture sunlight on only one side, bifacial modules harness solar irradiance on both their front and rear surfaces—turning reflected light from the ground or surrounding surfaces into additional electricity.

What is a dual side solar panel?

Unlike their traditional single-side counterparts, dual-side solar panels do things differently—they soak up sunlight from both sides. This means they can capture direct sunlight on the front and reflected light on the back, making them a potential powerhouse for energy generation.

What are the benefits of a dual-sided solar powerhouse?

Large commercial projects and utility-scale solar farms reap more significant benefits from these dual-sided powerhouses. These setups typically incorporate features like solar trackers to optimize panel angles throughout the day. Solar trackers ensure panels are consistently angled for maximum sun exposure, maximizing energy production.

How do bifacial solar panels work?

By installing the bifacial solar panels over a reflective surface, the light can bounce back through the panel a second time, giving the cells on the backside of the panel a second chance to capture and convert energy.

Are bifacial solar panels right for You?

Bring your solar energy game to the next level with bifacial panels! By maximizing light exposure from two sides, you'll experience a significant energy output spike and a lower carbon footprint. The buzz on bifacial solar panels is growing louder by the day.

Are bifacial solar panels better than monofacial panels?

The technology behind solar panels continues to evolve and improve. Manufacturers are now able to produce bifacial panels, which feature energy-producing solar cells on both sides of the panel. With two faces capable of absorbing sunlight, bifacial solar panels can be more efficient than traditional monofacial panels – if used appropriately.

What are the different types of solar panels?

Most of the solar panels you see are mono-facial solar panels. Sunlight hits the top face of the solar panel, and it generates electricity. But those aren't the only kind of solar panel that is out there. There's another type – bifacial solar panels. With bifacial panels, an extra part of the solar panel produces electricity – the back face.
