What is Hina battery doing now?

Hina Battery said it is committed to the commercial use of sodium-ion battery energy storage technology, completing the construction of the world's first 100 kWh sodium-ion battery energy storage station in 2019. In 2021, Hina Battery supported the commissioning of the world's first 1-MWh sodium-ion battery energy storage system.

Where is China's 10 MWh sodium-ion battery storage station located?

The 10-MWh sodium-ion battery storage station was put into operation on May 11 in Nanning, Guangxi in southwestern China, China Southern Power Grid Energy Storage, the energy storage division of China Southern Power Grid, said on May 11.

What is Nanning energy storage station?

The Nanning energy storage station is the first phase of a 100-MWh project, and when the entire project is fully completed, it will be able to provide 73 million kWh of clean electricity annually, meeting the electricity needs of 35,000 households. Hina Battery was founded in 2017 and released its sodium-ion batteries in the same year.

Who makes Hina batteries?

Hina Battery was founded in 2017 and released its sodium-ion batteries in the same year. On December 18, 2021, Hina Battery entered into a partnership with two subsidiaries of China Three Gorges Corporation and the Fuyang municipal government to build the world's first scaled mass production line for sodium-ion batteries.
