Solar power with grid backup in Tunisia

Overview

In 2010, Tunisia launched the Prosol Elec program to promote the installation of solar panels on roofs connected to the low-voltage grid through subsidies and loans. Why is solar energy important in Tunisia?

Solar energy also contributes to Tunisia's economic development. Expanding the solar energy sector creates job opportunities in manufacturing, installation, maintenance, and research. It attracts foreign investments, particularly in large-scale solar projects like photovoltaic (PV) farms and concentrated solar power (CSP) plants.

Does Tunisia have a power grid?

Tunisia's national grid is connected to those of Algeria and Libya which together helped supply about 12% of Tunisia's power consumption in the first half of 2023. Moreover, in August 2023, Tunisia's sub-sea connection project with Italy, called ELMED, was approved for $337 million funding from the European Commission.

When will Tunisia get a photovoltaic power plant?

The government will await proposals until April 30, 2025. The capacity will be awarded under the second round of the country's AO-01-2022 call for tenders, through which Tunisia aims to find contractors for 1,700 MW of photovoltaic (PV) projects under its national renewable energy development programme.

Who is building TuNur solar power in Tunisia?

Currently, the British group NurEnergie (Figure 5) is planning to build the 4.5 GW TuNur solar power project in the governorate of Kebili, an integrated solar energy project linking Tunisia's sunny desert to European electricity markets.

Can Tunisia harness solar energy?

Abstract: Solar energy holds immense potential for Tunisia, a country blessed with abundant sunshine. With an average of over 3,000 hours of sunlight annually, Tunisia is ideally positioned to harness solar power to meet its energy demands sustainably.

How does Tunisia invest in the photovoltaic sector?

The Tunisian government is encouraging investment in the photovoltaic sector by covering 30% of the investment costs. In addition, STEG buys the surplus electricity produced.
