Overview

What is the largest battery energy storage system in Latin America?

ENGIE obtained approval from the National Electricity Coordinator (CEN) to start commercial operation of BESS Coya, the largest battery energy storage system in Latin America to date. This system has a storage capacity of 638 MWh, with 139 MW of installed capacity.

Is Quillagua the largest solar-plus-storage site in Latin America?

Commercial operation of the power purchase agreement-backed site – which features 221 MW of solar generation capacity and a 200 MW/1.2 GWh battery energy storage system (BESS) – is expected within weeks. The developer says Quillagua is the largest solar-plus-storage site in Latin America.

Is a battery storage system coming to Antofagasta?

Atlas Renewable Energy has signed a long-term agreement with the Chilean energy company Colbun to implement an off-grid battery storage system project in the Antofagasta Region. The 230-megawatt project, with a storage volume of 920 megawatt-hours, is designed for 4-hour operation and slated to be launched in 2027.

How big is Chile's 230 megawatt solar project?

The 230-megawatt project, with a storage volume of 920 megawatt-hours, is designed for 4-hour operation and slated to be launched in 2027. Experts point out that the joint development of solar generation and energy storage is becoming vital to Chile, especially given the growing production volumes and limited grid capacity.

Where are solar and storage projects implemented?

Solar and storage projects are implemented primarily in the Antofagasta Region, which is located in the Atacama Desert, one of the driest and sunniest places on the planet. It has some of the highest levels of solar radiation in the world, making the region exceptionally well-suited to solar generation.

How much solar power does Oasis de Atacama have?

Once all seven phases are completed, Oasis de Atacama will reach the installed solar power capacity of 2 gigawatts and the battery storage capacity of 11 gigawatt-hours.
