Overview

Is Latvia ready for a green energy transition?

Solar and wind energy production alone experienced an impressive 92% surge in 2023 compared to 2022, and this momentum shows no signs of slowing down. Building on these achievements, Latvia has set ambitious targets for its green energy transition.

Why should Latvia invest in green energy?

As global demand for green energy rises, these partnerships represent logical steps toward Latvia's commitment to energy independence and sustainability. Green energy isn't just a vision for the future though. We've already made substantial strides in sustainably managing our natural resources, and the numbers speak for themselves.

Can Latvia sustainably manage our natural resources?

We've already made substantial strides in sustainably managing our natural resources, and the numbers speak for themselves. In 2023, Latvia ranked among the top three countries in the European Union for renewable energy use, with renewables accounting for 43.5% of our energy consumption.

How can Latvia achieve a zero-emissions goal?

Key outcomes include a memorandum between KBR and GI Terminals to produce sustainable aviation fuel from CO₂ and hydrogen. Latvia's leading energy provider, Latvenergo, also partnered up with the U.S. National Renewable Energy Laboratory to develop energy transformation strategies crucial for achieving Latvia's 2050 zero-emissions goal.

Will the 'elwind' boost Latvia's energy independence?

This joint Latvian-Estonian offshore wind farm, set for completion by 2030, will strengthen both countries' energy independence while advancing the goals of the European Green Deal. "Latvia's push for renewable energy, highlighted by projects like the 'Elwind,' is bringing in fresh investment and boosting our energy independence.

Why did 100 business delegates attend Latvia's largest US trade mission?

A month ago, 100 business delegates participated in Latvia's largest U.S. trade mission, showcasing our green energy potential by engaging with industry leaders and attending major events like Houston's Gastech exhibition and San Francisco's Dreamforce conference.
